Description

Come and explore drawing and painting, discovering key techniques to develop your own artistic style. To participate in this course, you will need a laptop, tablet or PC with webcam, a microphone and speakers, internet connection with Google Chrome browser, an email address and be able to access websites.

Who is this course for?

This course is suitable for all levels which covers a range of drawing and painting media and subject matters.

What can I expect to learn?

You will develop your skills and knowledge of:

- drawing and painting with a range of different media applied to a range of surfaces;
- colour blending and shading;
- proportion, relative sizes and composition;
- achieving textures and brushworks.

How will I know how I am progressing?

You will negotiate your objectives with the tutor at the start of the course and these will be reviewed regularly. You will be expected to record your progress and evidence your achievements via a portfolio. The tutor will provide developmental feedback throughout the course to ensure you get the most from your learning with ACL.

Will I have any homework?

Homework is not compulsory, however, it is beneficial to practise and complete work at home...

What will I need to provide?

You will need:

A range of drawing pencils B - 2B, 4B, 6B.

A sketch pad - A4 or A3 cartridge or mixed media type paper.

Putty rubber

Watercolour paints - a small set.

Watercolour brushes - a small selection.

Other options might include acrylics, pastes, etc, but these will be discussed at the start and you will be given a choice.

You will be given additional advice if you are not sure at the beginning of the course.

It is recommended that you speak to the tutor prior to purchasing expensive resources. For example, please avoid buying expensive mediums that you may not use in the initial stages.

To participate in this course, you will also need a laptop/tablet/PC with a webcam, microphone and speakers, an internet connection with Google Chrome browser, an email address and be able to access websites.
