Description
A short course for people wishing to try learning a language before committing to a longer course. No previous knowledge is necessary.

What Qualification/level is this course?
This course does not lead to a qualification and is for personal development.

Who is the course for?
For absolute beginners who wish to be able to ‘get by’ when visiting the country.

What can I expect to learn?
By the end of the course you should be able to: greet people and introduce yourself; order basic drinks and snacks; understand simple numbers and prices; ask the way and understand key words for directions.

How will I learn?
Teaching methods include tutor presentations, supported by tutor handouts, group and individual activities, peer discussions and critiques, with use of information and learning technologies where appropriate.

How will I know how well I am doing?
Your tutor will give you feedback on classroom activities and tasks undertaken. Individual learning outcomes will be agreed at the beginning of the course, taking into account the course aims and your aspirations. These will be reviewed with you at regular intervals and you will be encouraged to reflect on your own learning and record your feedback in your Individual Learning Plan.

Will I have to do any work at home?
Home study is optional; but you will be encouraged to work away from the course to develop your skills and get the most from your course.
To get the most from the course, we recommend you spend about 2 hours a week to go over what you have learnt and prepare for the next session. Your tutor will normally set you a task to do at home, which may involve reading, writing or researching information about a specific topic.
What will I need to provide?
You will not need to provide any books for this course but you will need pen, paper and a folder in which to keep your session materials, assessment sheets and your individual learning plan.

Are there any other costs?
No

What can I do next?
Your tutor will be pleased to discuss other courses that might assist your progression in this subject. You can join a Starter course. For information on ACL courses please see http://www.aclessex.com/
