Description

Our Access to HE courses will be starting in September 2021. If you are interested in joining, then we would like to invite you to enrol onto one of our Information and Assessment sessions. (Click on the How to Enrol button on the right-hand side of this page.)

These sessions will be held remotely and facilitated by one of our expert Access to HE tutors. They will be able to explain how we deliver the course and go through a summary of the diploma pathways that we offer. You will undertake an English, maths, and subject-specific initial assessment. You do not need to do anything to prepare for these assessments and we will have the time to go through your results and ensure that you are supported to join the course that is the right level for you.

Preparing for Online Learning with ACL.

Would you like to join an online course but not sure if you have the digital skills to manage without a bit of support first? Look out for our FREE short course, Preparing for Online Learning with ACL, as this will give you the skills and confidence to use Teams and get you ready for starting your studies on an ACL online course.
